

SIR JACQUES VINMONT, JR. PASSES AWAY

We are deeply saddened to report the passing September 20 of Jacques Vinmont, Jr. Jacques, a Knight of the Holy Sepulcher, and his wife, Danger, have been Friends of the Seminary for many years as regular attendees at seminary functions and major benefactors.

Jacques was an alumnus of Stanford University, Class of 1933, with a degree in economics. He worked on Wall Street for nearly a decade and afterwards established several import and export businesses before retiring in 1980.

In addition to St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary, Jacques supported Catholic Charities, the Diocese of Palm Beach, The Vatican Art Museum, St. Mary's of Pahokee, Our Lady of Florida Retreat Center, St. Mary's Hospital and others.

Most recently Jacques and Danger had agreed to serve as Honorary Chairs for the 2009 "Friends of the Seminary" event here on campus February 20, 2009. They recognized the importance of that event to help us continue the important and vital work of St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary.

The Mass of Resurrection was held September 30 at St. Edward Church followed by entombment in the Royal Palm Memorial Gardens, West Palm Beach.

The Vinmont family and Danger asked that in lieu of flowers gifts in memory of Jacques should be made to the seminary. Click on "Donate Now" to make a gift on-line.

We ask that you remember Jacques in your prayers. May he Rest in Peace.
